

25 litres • 210 litres

LIQUID SEAWEED

The original liquid seaweed, containing the natural extract of ascophyllum nodosum – a powerful natural biostimulant.

Application rate:

10 litres/hectare
Apply monthly as required.
Can be used monthly throughout the year.

The original seaweed feed. Liquid Seaweed is a concentrated made up of a careful balance of growth stimulators and growth hormones. Liquid Seaweed benefits from the complete range of trace elements and vitamins to provide turf with all the requirements it needs to thrive. It is backed by extensive research and can be blended with the Liquid Range.

Benefits

- A balanced soil liquid feed
- No need to buy additional seaweed
- Increases nutrient availability to the plant
- Growth stimulator
- Encourages strong rooting
- Aids plant health during periods of drought, frost or heavy use
- Increases beneficial bacteria within the soil
- Farmura + Seaweed combination assists with sward density
- Tank mixes with the Farmura Range

For Best Results

- Use when the ground temperature is above 7°C.
- Avoid spraying in the heat of the day.
- In dry conditions water after application.

Features

- 30% concentration
- High concentration of growth hormones
- Uses a delicate balance of the natural extract of ascophyllum nodosum — a powerful natural biostimulant
- Complete range of trace elements and vitamins
- Backed by extensive research
- Can be blended into Farmura Liquid Organic Products

Where To Use

- Tees
- Fairways
- Greens
- General Maintenance